WINTER ALLOWS WORK ON DRIVE-IN

With the mild weather this year, construction is proceeding through the winter months at an unusual pace. Men here are working at dizzy heights on the steel framework for a seven-storey screen at the Kelowna Drive-in theatre on Highway 27. When the theatre re-opens in April or May, there will be an entirely new set-up. The $150,000 construction program, begun in October, will have provision for 600 cars, a screen 130 feet wide by 50 feet deep, a snack bar and a home for the manager, Clifford Fox. Contractor is Dezel Construction of Prince George.

African Guards on Lookout For Saboteurs at Kariba

FRANCISTOWN, Bechuanaland (Reuters)—Two dozen African guards alert for saboteurs are keeping watch here on Britain's new radio relay station, which will beam BBC programs to Rhodesia.

Talk of sabotage is rife as the transmitters are made ready for operation early in the new year. Successful test transmissions which will beam BBC programs to Rhodesia, have begun.

The small band of about 20 Britons sent to run the project expect to spend a tense Christmas, ostracized by a hostile white community.

The tough Rhodesian and South African farmers, artisans and businessmen who make up most of the 2,000-strong white community in Francistown deeply resent the presence of the African guards.

The African guards are commanded by four security men from the British foreign office.

Tanzania Bars U.K. Force From Entering To Aid Zambia

DAR ES SALAAM (Reuters)—Tanzania announced today it will not allow British military personnel and equipment into the country to assist in the oil airlift to Zambia.

A government statement said the arrival of the British frigate Dido and about 70 men of the RAF to help the oil lift to Zambia was not acceptable to Tanzania following her diplomatic break with Britain.

The statement added: "The character of this operation must be completely civil and not military."

Informed sources said the Tanzanian announcement was regarded as a statement of principle and would not mean immediate withdrawal of British military personnel, who would be phased out as civilian aircraft and personnel arrived.

The frigate Dido left Wednesday night immediately after unloading 250 empty oil drums for use in the airlift.

A second frigate, the Hereward, was diverted to Mombasa, Kenya, to unload following difficulties over the presence of the warship here.

RAF Britannias have been assigned to the oil airlift and are the only planes available until the expected arrival of civilian planes, which officials said was not expected before about a week.

The oil airlift into Zambia via Dar es Salaam was undertaken because Rhodesia suspended deliveries to Zambia after Britain and other countries imposed an embargo on oil supplied to the breakaway regime of Prime Minister Ian Smith.

THREATEN SABOTAGE

Harold Robins, sent from London to direct the setting up of the station after the Rhodesian white-minority regime of Ian Smith seized independence, said Wednesday:

"Threats of sabotage have been made and we must take them seriously."

"Most of the local people support Smith and they seem to regard us as a British propaganda outfit. They fear reprisals from Rhodesia, on which most of them depend for their livelihood."

Negroes Fight Over Word

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A Negro group disagrees with the civil rights protest of another Negro group concerning a parking garage sign.

As a result, the operator of the garage spent a good part of Wednesday with a paint brush removing, then putting back the word Negro in the sign.

The garage uses colored strips to designate each floor and labels the strips with the English, German, French and Spanish word for the color.

The eighth floor is black and the sign above it says "Black, schwarz, noir and Negro."

The United Negro College Committee Tuesday told Harry Shepard Jr., operator of the garage, that it thought the use of the word Negro was offensive.

Shepard painted over the word.

Then the Congress of Racial Equality called and said it disagreed with the UNCC. It asked Shepard to leave the word there.

Coast Fire Kills Pair

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two persons died in a fire in the Chinatown district Wednesday night. Police said they were "elderly Oriental males."

The men were found dead atop one of three buildings that were heavily damaged in the two-alarm blaze, which sent four other elderly men to hospital and forced firemen to evacuate about 16 persons from nearby buildings.

Fanfani Back To Uproar

ROME (AP)—Italian Foreign Minister Amintore Fanfani came home from New York today and landed in a rising political storm over his role in reported peace feelers from Hanoi.

Fanfani, president of the UN General Assembly, declined any comment on his meeting with U.S. State Secretary Dean Rusk, the peace overtures, or the announcement by American military officials of a Christmas ceasefire in Viet Nam.

Fanfani went from the airport to a meeting with President Giuseppe Saragat. He will also report to Premier Aldo Moro.

Moro's centre-left government is preparing to face calls for clarification of Fanfani's role in the reported peace overtures from North Viet Nam. Deputies of the extreme right and left—fascists, liberals and Communists—have demanded a government explanation of the entire affair.

The foreign affairs commission of the chamber of deputies is expected to hold a special meeting in the first week of January to take up the matter.

Fanfani passed on to the U.S. government a report by two Italian visitors to Hanoi last month and who said the Communist government there expressed readiness for peace talks. Hanoi denied it after the report leaked out in the United States.

Air Crash Toll Reported At 81

SAIGON (Reuters)—Eighty-one South Vietnamese paratroopers and four U.S. Air Force men were presumed killed when an American transport plane hit a mountain peak and crashed 240 miles northeast of Saigon Dec. 11, an air force spokesman said today.

News of the crash was withheld while search operations were in progress.

The spokesman said it was the worst single crash of the Viet Nam war. The plane crashed in an area controlled by Viet Cong guerrillas.

The spokesman also announced the crash of a U.S. Air Force Dakota, Dec. 17, 140 miles northeast of Saigon. All nine U.S. Air Force men aboard were killed.

Canada Hits Back At Soviet Charge

Viet Cong Offer Christmas Pax

SAIGON (Reuters)—The Viet Cong tonight repeated their call for a 12-hour Christmas truce without mentioning today's Allied announcement of a 30-hour ceasefire.

In a broadcast over the guerrillas' clandestine "liberation radio," Nguyen Huu Tho, chairman of the National Liberation Front—political arm of the Viet Cong—repeated his Dec. 7 call for a halt in hostilities from 7 p.m. Christmas Eve to 7 a.m. Christmas morning.

He said Allied troops could attend Christmas services in Roman Catholic churches throughout South Viet Nam as long as they did not carry weapons.

He wished a happy Christmas to Catholics in South and North Viet Nam and in the United States, and called on them to join the movement against the present American involvement in the war.

The Viet Cong leader also appealed to Catholics in South Viet Nam to unite with followers of other religions here against the Americans who, he said, were responsible for destroying Catholic churches with their air attacks.

China Said Slowing Arms Sent By Soviet To Viet Nam

LONDON (AP)—East European diplomats claimed today China is seriously slowing the transit of Soviet arms and supplies to North Viet Nam.

"In normal circumstances it should take no more than 10 days for these goods to reach North Viet Nam from Soviet territory using railroad routes through China," said one diplomat.

The average time these consignments are taking now is about two months.

Other East European diplomats said Peking's obstruction is part of its struggle with Moscow for predominant influence in Hanoi.

The Soviet Union and North Viet Nam signed a new agreement in Moscow Tuesday.

The East European diplomats said the Russians have been sending considerable quantities of anti-aircraft armament and jet fighters to North Viet Nam as well as medical supplies.

Africans Die In Bus Crash

MIDDLEBURG, South Africa (AP)—A crowded bus ran out of control on a mountain road near Middleburg today and crashed, killing 37 youthful Negroes.

Police said the dead included 33 girls and four boys, all about 15. Forty-three girls were injured.

The Negroes had been working on a farm and were returning to their homes for Christmas. Police said the bus ran out of control as it was going down a steep mountain road and crashed into the face of a rock wall.

"All that is left of the bus is the wheels," said a policeman.

Slide In Peru Leaves 15 Dead

LIMA (AP)—The Peruvian Air Force rushed doctors, nurses, clothes and food today to three small villages high in the Andes where officials said 15 persons were killed in a landslide.

Early unofficial reports from the area 100 miles northeast of Lima said between 100 and 200 were killed, but Luis Lopez Haza, prefect of Ancash department, reported only 15 dead.

'Entirely Unfounded' Claim On New German Militarism

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada has cracked back at Russia for accusing this country of supporting a Soviet-alleged revival of German militarism.

An external affairs department spokesman said Wednesday night Russia has mounted an entirely unfounded campaign of defamation against West Germany in an apparent attempt to sow mistrust of Germany as a partner in the North Atlantic Alliance.

It is a matter of grave concern, the spokesman said, "that Soviet policy should apparently be directed not only toward the indefinite postponement of solutions to cardinal issues of European security, but also toward sowing mistrust of the Federal Republic of Germany as a partner in NATO by an entirely unfounded campaign of defamation against it."

The words were the harshest in the foreign policy field to emerge from official Ottawa in a long time.

The spokesman was commenting on a Moscow report Wednesday quoting the Soviet Tass news agency as saying that Canada is supporting the revival of German militarism by permitting West Germany to conduct cold-weather weapons tests at Camp Shilo, Man.

The current German tests of armored vehicles at Camp Shilo were announced Aug. 17 by the Union.

Canadian defence department. The Moscow report said Robert Ford, Canadian ambassador to Russia, was called to the Soviet foreign ministry Tuesday to receive the Russian complaint.

The Canadian spokesman said it is "surprising" that the Soviet government should publish, almost as soon as delivered, a communication made to the Canadian ambassador.

The spokesman said West Germany is a full and equal partner in NATO and that Canada doesn't discriminate among its allies. Use of the facilities of one NATO country for equipment trials and training of the forces of another was an established part of co-operation among NATO partners.

NATO had been established on the principle of collective security and collective defence to supplement United Nations arrangements as a means of maintaining peace.

Until disarmament by international agreement could be achieved, Western nations must have defence forces strong enough to convince any potential enemy that aggression wouldn't be worth while.

Despite the Russian attitude, the spokesman said, the Canadian government is determined to continue its efforts to improve relations with the Soviet Union.

CNR Unions Reverse Plea For Integrated Pensions

OTTAWA (CP)—The general chairmen of CNR unions have reversed an earlier decision and are asking the railway to integrate its present pension plan with the Canada Pension Plan, it was learned today.

Several months ago the union agreement demanded, and got, CNR agreement to stack the government pension plan on top of the railway's own plan.

At a meeting in Montreal Wednesday the union chairmen voted 26 to 19 against the stacking principle. Fifteen unions were represented at the meeting, each with three votes on the question.

The CNR originally suggested that all employees accept an integrated formula under which their contributions would remain the same but benefits would increase. When the unions asked for stacking, the CNR said the integrated plan would be adopted for all non-union staff.

The integrated formula increases the percentage paid for each year of service and will benefit long-service employees now nearing retirement. Pressure to accept the integrated formula and reject a stacked plan came mainly from non-operating unions.

CNR employees now contribute 6 1/2 per cent of earnings to the pension plan. With stacking, another 1.8 per cent would have been deducted for the Canada Pension Plan which begins Jan. 1.

ONE, TWO, THREE, FOUR ALL ROLLED INTO ONE

A little of the magic of Christmas was caught in this picture of the Christmas tree in the city park... but a multiple exposure was used to do it. The picture was taken from across Mill Creek and five exposures were taken of the brightly lit tree. Grass in the foreground was pic-ed only once, the flash only fired on the first exposure. This also gave the grass the frosty appearance it seems to have

Pope's Christmas Message Urges Just Talks For Peace

VATICAN CITY (AP)—In a clear reference to Viet Nam, Pope Paul appealed tonight in his Christmas message to the world for "just and sincere negotiation to restore order and friendship."

He put the Roman Catholic Church squarely behind all efforts for a settlement of the Viet Nam fighting, saying:

"Is not the first contribution which the church can offer, from her position in the midst of the world, to give, promote and teach peace?"

"At this very moment we are making a new plea for peace—and this, not simply because peace is a good thing in itself, but also because it is a good thing which is in such danger today."

The pope did not name Viet Nam in his 2,000-word address but he spoke in unmistakable terms.

His urging for peace and negotiation carried forward his speech of just four days ago when he appealed for a Christmas ceasefire in Viet Nam and asked world leaders to pursue all possibilities for negotiations.

Word that a Christmas ceasefire was to be undertaken by U.S. and South Vietnamese forces was rushed to the pope earlier today and he was reported to be "extremely gratified."

There was no mention in his speech of the ceasefire, however.

The Christmas message, the third of his reign, was recorded Wednesday by radio and television broadcast by the Vatican and by networks throughout Europe and elsewhere.

HE'D LOVE IT IF ARRESTED

COLORADO SPRINGS (AP)—"I wish you would come and arrest me," an American soldier in South Vietnam wrote in a letter to the Colorado Springs traffic bureau. "I would love to be back there," said Pte. George A. Hall. He referred to an overtime parking ticket that was forwarded to his unit in South Vietnam. The ticket was issued when Hall was stationed near Colorado Springs.

About 300 Oil Workers May Go On Strike Today

TORONTO (CP)—About 300 workers at Texaco Canada Ltd. plants here and at nearby Port Credit are set to strike at 4 p.m. today, an oil workers' union spokesman said. Norm Allison, international representative of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union (OCAWI), said three meetings Wednesday with Texaco management did not produce a contract agreement. "It looks like a strike," he said, adding that no further meetings are scheduled with management before the 4 p.m. deadline. The union will await an approach from Texaco management until then, he said. But he said an agreement appears likely between the union and British Petroleum Oil Co. at BP's refinery at Bronte, about 12 miles north of Hamilton, following a tentative agreement Wednesday at the company's refinery in Montreal. The union and BP management are scheduled to meet today on contract negotiations for Bronte's 120 oil workers.

effective April 15, 1966. —Establishment of a joint union-management committee on automation similar to one included in the formula that ended the strike at facilities of British American Oil Co. Ltd. in British Columbia last month. —Severance pay equal to one week's wages for every year of service, to a maximum of 26 weeks, for men laid off by automation. —Agreement by the company to work with government retraining programs to offset the effects of automation. —The contract to cover the period June 1, 1965, to May 31, 1967. INVOLVES 300 WORKERS Mr. Allison said a strike at Texaco would affect about 300 workers at the Port Credit refinery and a blending plant in Toronto. He said lack of agreement at Wednesday's meetings was caused by "Texaco's refusing to come up to pattern on job security, wages and term (length) of agreement." He said he could not speak for Texaco workers in Montreal but "I presume they will come out there if they do here." The oil workers' union is currently on strike at the B.A. refinery at Clarkson, 15 miles west of Toronto. Since the strike started Sept. 15, the plant has continued to operate with supervisory personnel. Earlier this week both BP and Texaco said they planned similar action if they were struck. The average refinery worker's pay in Ontario and Quebec is $2.15 an hour, ranging from slightly more than $2 to $3.26.

'Joey' Set For Retirement But He Isn't Saying When

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Premier Joseph R. Smallwood of Newfoundland says his mind is now "completely made up"—he is going to retire. However he won't say when.

Joey—as most Newfoundlanders know him—celebrates his 65th birthday Friday, having passed what he terms "one of the most arduous years of my life."

He said in an interview his decision to step down as premier and head of the Liberal party in Newfoundland is "completely final." But there are certain jobs he feels he must complete before retiring because "to retire before they are done is cowardly and I don't like to be cowardly."

"I want to finish the job that I have set my hand to do, and when that's done the office I sell doesn't have any joy for me. I don't cling to office."

SEEMS MORE DEFINITE He has made retirement announcements before, but this time he appears more definite. Some observers feel he will step down after the next provincial election, perhaps next spring.

The "unfinished work" to be taken care of is undoubtedly the Churchill Falls power project in Labrador. He forecast several times this year but this hardly seems possible now. He describes the negotiations for the project as "very long and painful, and sometimes agonizing."

Radio Silence For Loved Voice

LONDON (AP)—British commercial stations went silent for two minutes Wednesday night after Britain's best known radio and television commentator, Richard Dimbleby, died of cancer.

A TV channel of the BBC also observed a brief silence to honor the man who for 30 years has narrated most of Britain's greatest events.

Dimbleby was 52. He died in London's St. Thomas's Hospital after fighting cancer for five years. When he was admitted to the hospital two months ago, his son, David, announced his illness and said:

"My father is strongly opposed to the idea of cancer being an untreatable disease. Tributes to the broadcaster poured into London today."

Dimbleby was famous for the hushed, reverent way he described the pageantry of royal weddings, coronations and state funerals as that of Sir Winston Churchill last January.

A symbol of good taste, he was considered unmatched in his understatement and calm approach to unexpected events that might fluster other broadcasters.

Difficult Task Now Completed

LONDON (AP)—Britain's official representative in Hanoi, Consul-General Myles Ponsonby, has been replaced after 14 months in the difficult post, the foreign office said today.

His successor is Henry Bryan Shepherd, 48, who has been at the foreign office for the last two years after four years as consul in Sofia, Bulgaria.

Britain does not recognize the North Vietnamese government since it has diplomatic relations with South Viet Nam. The British representative in Hanoi is accredited to no one, the foreign office said, but transacts business with the external affairs bureau of the Hanoi municipality.

Canada played a major role in bringing both France and the Soviet Union behind the UN peacekeeping program by pushing through a resolution that called on member states to make voluntary contributions to reduce the peacekeeping operations to conclude its study on the whole question of peacekeeping.

The assembly sailed through a number of important resolutions with overwhelming agreement, including one calling for a world disarmament conference, with Communist China to be invited.

CHECK NUCLEAR SPREAD Other resolutions approved dealt with the denuclearization of Africa, prevention of the spread of nuclear weapons and non-intervention in the internal affairs of other states.

Canada's ambassador to the UN described the 20th session as "most constructive" and attributed this largely to the creative success and the positive spirit.

TIDE OF EXCITEMENT RISES IN YOUNG AS STORES DISPLAY THEIR WARES FOR CHRISTMAS

Christmas belongs to children and round about this time their excitement runs high. Two more whole days, however, can wait, they say, bounce-ing about in an unsuccessful effort to contain their energy. One way to work off steam is to begin fashioning decorations. Left to right, Gayle Chapman, 7110 McBride St., tries her hand at making a snowman from tissue paper and cardboard. Three Rutland children had another idea, visiting stores to see what's coming out of Santa's workshop this year. They are Stephen, Grant and Susan, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Mitt Koga. Carrier boy Raymond Poshoff knows he should be hurrying home to dinner after his papers are all delivered but "golly mum, a guy has to have a look around." Laurie Marlagan, 1664 A test St., finds excitement in decorating the Christmas tree in his home. Mother may have another name for it! But it's all part of the Christmas fun. There is much to look at and admire in city stores. Something for every age group from the crib to the classroom and for mother and dad too. Store owners say secret agent boys are still in demand. Dolls get more and more life-like. There are miniature copies of everything mother uses from cooking utensils to a hair dryer. Yes, it's a magical world when you're young and it's only two days before Christmas. (Courier Photos)

'Eighteen Students Win 'Wonderful Boon' In Aid

Gordon D. Herbert, secretary of the Student Assistance Association, School District No. 23, said today 18 students have been granted loans totalling $5,725 in the current school term. The Federal Government Student Loan Fund "is a wonderful boon to students," he said, but it is not available for high school fees, menses training, district about $28,000," he said.

The Student Assistance Association was formed with the object of helping deserving students, short of money to train for a vocation of their choice. A large number of the students earn a certain sum of money on their own, but require additional funds to supplement earnings.

The loans are granted interest-free and are repaid at the rate of $50 per month after graduation. Mr. Herbert said not one cent has been lost on collections to date.

To secure a loan a student must be honest and have shown a desire to improve his or her education while attending district schools.

The loan becomes a "revolving fund." As soon as one student repays it, it is loaned to another.

Money for the loans are from annual memberships of $5, life memberships of $50, donations from individuals, service clubs and bequests from wills.

Motto of the association is "Every Dollar Helps A Scholar." Directors are J. E. Greenaway, president; R. E. Greenaway, vice-president; C. E. R. Bazzell, honorary treasurer; Gordon D. Herbert, honorary secretary; Marjorie Leach, Mrs. Grace Williams, Father Francis Goddard, Paul Zubick, Peter Greer and Sydney Hodge, directors.

Three Accidents In 24 Hours Reported By RCMP In Kelowna

Three accidents were reported to police in the past 24 hours. One man was taken to hospital by ambulance. Aggressive damage is estimated at $200. An elderly pedestrian was struck by a car at Queensway and Water St., shortly after midnight today. William A. Neaves, 63, of Penticton, was taken to the Kelowna General Hospital with a broken hip, leg and nose.

RCMP said driver of the car was Edward Smuland, 35, of 378 Sutherland Ave. Police are still investigating. Hospital authorities said today Mr. Neaves' condition appears satisfactory.

A car and heaving truck collided at Harvey Ave. and Burch road at 1:40 p.m. Wednesday. RCMP said truck driver was Bernard George Lemky, Rutland. Second driver was Horst Dohertstein, Buenos Aires. Damage is estimated at $200. There were no injuries.

Two cars were involved in an accident at Francis Ave. and Richter St. at 4:15 p.m. Wednesday. Police said drivers were William James Wardlaw, 767 Copeland Place and James Robert Flinoff, Benvoulin road. Damage is estimated at $100. No injuries were reported.

Company of Young Canadians 'Should Be Crown Corporation'

OTTAWA (CP) — The Company of Young Canadians should be set up through a Crown corporation and be as independent as possible, the government has been told.

A 35-page report by an organizational committee says volunteers should be chosen for their ability to serve and be paid enough to ensure that only the rich don't apply.

Age and occupational qualifications should be broad enough to attract volunteers from all walks of life. Emotional maturity would be a major requirement.

Company of Young Canadians 'Should Be Crown Corporation'

The report, handed the government Nov. 15, was made public Wednesday following a cabinet meeting. The prime minister's press secretary, Dick O'Hagan, released the report at a press conference.

Birth Rate Up In November

Ten more babies were born in Kelowna last month than in November a year ago, a Kelowna General Hospital spokesman said, but the total birth rate for 1965 is still down from 1964.

Road Conditions 'Pretty Good'

Road conditions for anyone motoring home for Christmas will probably be pretty good, the department of highways said today.

Sales Of Seals Up This Year

Proceeds from the TB Christmas Seal campaign in Kelowna and district amount to $5,046, up $88 from the same date last year.

ANN LANDERS

Danger Signals For The Female Drinker

Dear Ann Landers: I have a sneaking suspicion that my sister is being turned into an alcoholic by her cheating husband. It breaks my heart to see this once beautiful, gay creature become argumentative and incoherent.

I've discussed the problem with my brother and he says I am worrying needlessly—that Marge likes to get into the sauce a little but she is no alcoholic. Maybe he is right, but I'd appreciate some information to go on.

What are the signs of alcoholism in women? How can one tell?—NEEDING THE FACTS

Dear Needing: One expert, Mrs. Marty Mann, the founder and executive director of the National Council on Alcoholism has produced a list of danger signals for female drinkers. I hope you millions of ladies who consider yourselves "social drinkers" will examine the list carefully. If you see yourself in six or more of the situations, you are no social drinker. Dearie,

1. Gulping drinks.
2. Making promises about drinking—but only to herself.
3. Lying about her drinking—minimizing the number of drinks, or concealing the fact that she has had any drinks at all.
4. Taking a drink before going to a party where liquor will undoubtedly be served.
5. Feeling the necessity of having drinks at a set time every day or night.
6. Needing three or four drinks before she can entertain her husband's boss at dinner.
7. Needing drinks for "nerves" because of a shattering day at the office or a frantic day with the children.
8. Drinking when blue—to forget her worries.
9. Insisting on drinks as part of any special event—theatre, concert, baseball game or even a Sunday hike through the woods.

Mrs. Mann also says that most alcoholic women start drinking later in life than men. For men, 10 years of excessive drinking is enough to bring him to the early stages of alcoholism. For a woman, it takes much less time. They slip over the line a lot faster.

Dear Ann Landers: Several months ago a good friend of mine was in a spot and needed a baby-sitter. I offered to loan her the girl who sits for me.

I am now kicking myself for being so big-hearted. Twice last week when I wanted my sitter I wasn't able to get her. She had already committed herself to this friend. Now I am angry. Last night I telephoned the sitter and asked for two up-coming Saturdays. I was told that my "friend" had booked her for the next three Saturdays.

It seems to me that before this woman tied up my sitter she should have telephoned me and asked if I needed her. I would not dream of engaging another person's sitter without first checking to learn if that person was planning to use her. Am I unreasonable?—SITTERLESS

Dear Sitterless: You talk about sitters as if they were not human beings, but property.

A sitter has a right to say yes to the first person who calls. If you want to insure yourself of the girl's services, line her up well in advance—which is what your friend is doing. And your friend is not obliged to call you first to clear the deal.

PLEAD FOR PRIVACY

KUALA LUMPUR (AP)—Customs officers at the Malayan capital want more privacy when on duty at the international airport. Their present work area can be overlooked from a public gallery and "we're the victims of indignant passengers," say the officers, as they hunt for contraband.

WIFE-PRESERVER

Krogseth-Wilson Wedding Takes Place In Vancouver

Christ Church Cathedral in Vancouver was the scene of a pretty ceremony on Dec. 18, at 2 p.m., when Jeryll Joy Wilson, daughter of Robert H. Wilson of Kelowna, became the bride of Donald Leslie Krogseth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Krogseth of New Westminster, with Canon Graham Baker officiating.

The lovely bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a gown of white peau de soie fashioned on classic lines. The bodice was over-encrusted with Chantilly lace, and a full train of the lace swept gracefully from the back waistline to extend beyond the chapel length train of the gown. A woven crown of white peau de soie held in place the bride's tiered Chapel length veil of French illusion net, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Almost As Old As Christmas Is The Singing Of Carols

Christmas caroling is almost as old as Christmas itself—though not in the form we know it.

An early historian wrote that in the Second Century the bishop of Rome urged his people to sing "in celebration of our Lord." Christmas hymns go back to the Fifth Century, when most of them were written in Latin.

St. Francis of Assisi is regarded as the father of caroling as we know it, according to World Book Encyclopedia. In 1223, St. Francis placed a crèche miniature Nativity scene in a hermitage in Greccio, Italy.

After this many churches began displaying a Nativity scene at Christmas, and soon the people began acting out the Christmas story. The actors composed carols to sing with their Nativity plays and after the plays they would stroll down the street, singing in that way, street caroling was born.

Joseph Mohr, a pastor in Oberndorf, Austria, composed "Silent Night" or "Stille Nacht," on Christmas Eve, 1818. Franz Gruber, the local schoolmaster and organist, composed the music the same day, and the hymn was sung for the first time at midnight Mass that night.

Charles Wesley, brother of John Wesley, wrote, "Hark! The Lord"

Herald Angels Sing" in 1739. Phillips Brooks, a noted Boston clergyman, wrote "O Little Town of Bethlehem" in 1868 after visiting Bethlehem.

Though not a carol, Handel's noble "Messiah" is a Christmas tradition. It was first performed in Dublin in 1742. "Joy to the World," written in the early 18th Century by Isaac Watts, was set to the music of a segment of the "Messiah." While "Shepherd's Watched Their Flocks by Night," written in 1763 by Naham Tate, was set to music taken from "Sore," an opera by Handel.

No one knows who wrote "The First Noel." It first appeared in print in 1853 in a book called "Christmas Carols Ancient and Modern," and is believed to be very old.

The author of "God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen," also unknown, but he lived before Shakespeare.

So if you should go caroling this Christmas Eve, think of the people of Charles Dickens' time in their beaver hats and outworn coats, of English villagers in hose and jerkin, of good St. Francis, and of the priests of the time of the first Roman Empire who, before caroling as we know it, existed.

Charles Wesley, brother of John Wesley, wrote, "Hark! The Lord"

Christmas Dinner Meeting Held By Members Of Beta Sigma Phi

The Alpha Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their Christmas dinner meeting at the Capri Motor Hotel on the evening of December 15, and the members were pleased to welcome Mrs. G. Mervyn, who has accepted the position of social sponsor of the chapter.

During the meeting the members were given tickets to sell on the Panda Bear punned with 10 bulls, which was on display in Dyck's Drug Store. The draw for this wealthy Panda takes place today, and the winner will be announced shortly. All proceeds from the draw will be donated to the Unitarian Christmas Fund.

The business meeting was followed by an interesting program presented by Mrs. Lorne Schmidt whose topic was "The Connoisseur," and who chose to discuss the various types of wines and their usage.

At the close of the program gifts were exchanged by the members with their secret sister.

The next meeting will be the "Pledge Ritual" which will take place at the Capri Motor Hotel on January 5 at 7:30 p.m.

The Postage Stamp A Trusty Messenger

You write a letter and it is only paper dotted with a little ink, but add a stamp and put it in the mail box and it becomes a messenger on its way to the friend to whom it is addressed. No one touches it save those in authority, but it travels by hand, by sea and by air.

Just a tiny piece of paper carries your message to its destination, and what a busy letter carrier it is over the festive season, bringing messages of peace and good will from all the corners of the earth. Here's to the little postage stamp.

MIS MOTHER HAD MARK

Lady Randolph Churchill, Winston Churchill's mother, had a tattoo.

"If your new playmate is that tough maybe your father had better not speak to him after all."

SPORTS SPOTLIGHT

By RON HOLLAND

A recent news release from Vancouver indicated that a complex junior hockey league is possible for B.C. The proposed league would encompass the best teams from the four existing leagues. At present the Okanagan Junior Hockey League, the Pacific Coast Junior Hockey League, the Caribon Junior Hockey League and the Kootenay Junior Hockey League are all experiencing difficulties due to having one weak link in their respective leagues.

Taking each league in turn let's see what the prospects for success would be.

The Pacific Coast Hockey League has been plagued with dropouts. At the beginning of the year the PCHL had teams from Prince George, Vancouver, New Westminster, North Kamloops and Coquitlam. After a few games it became evident North Kamloops and Coquitlam would soon be bidding goodbye. Both teams suffered bad losses both financially and on the ice.

Just last week Prince George withdrew from the league supposedly because they were disturbed by the roughhouse tactics of the New Westminster Royals.

If the truth were known Prince George couldn't keep up with the heavy financial problems caused by travelling back and forth to the coast.

Taking a look at the Caribon League it doesn't have too much to offer at the moment. Teams in the league set up league include Quesnel and Vanderhoof. There is no league schedule as the teams play an exhibition skien against other clubs.

The Kootenay Junior Hockey League is similar to the Pacific Coast League. Trail and Nelson are supporting the rest of the league. Last year the calibre of hockey in the Kootenay League was shown as the Kelowna Buckaroos ran roughshod over the junior Trail Smoke Eaters.

The Okanagan Junior Hockey League is the strongest junior league in the province.

There is one weak link in the OJHL. That is Vernon who have been having troubles on the ice and at the turnstiles. The other three clubs in the OJHL could possibly undertake the increased expenses involved. But only time would tell if the league would be successful.

If such a league was to be formed the ideal alignment would be to establish farm teams of the professional clubs in the Western United States and Western Canada.

With the NHL ready to step into three west coast cities the need for a junior hockey league in close proximity is a possibility. Until that time the idea that a junior hockey league involving teams throughout the province would be successful is a bit premature.

After taking another look at International Hockey Monday night maybe it's not as bad as I thought. The game between Canada and the Russians seemed to be much better than the match between the Russians and the Spokane Jets.

Canada showed that maybe they can pull off the upset of the year and give the Russian Bear a beating like they never had before. The play of Frank Huk was the highlight of the third period that we saw. Huk's goal in the last period was the best we've seen anywhere.

Russia was undoubtedly tired after their grueling Canadian tour and this might explain the play as witnessed Monday night.

From what we have heard these Russians have an enormous appetite at the kitchen table. Evidently before the game in Victoria the Russians showed what they are made of. They calmly set down and ate away approximately $1,000 of food at the Empress Hotel in Victoria.

Be sure and catch the Kelowna Buckaroos in action over the holiday season Sunday, Boxing Day, they are hosting the second-place Kamloops Kraft Kings in what could be the best game of the year. In their last meeting in Kelowna the teams had the spectators sitting on the edge of their seats. The following Monday the Bucks will entertain Penticton Broncos in what would turn out to be one of the more important games of the current OJHL schedule.

OUTSTANDING MALE ATHLETE OF YEAR

News Media Honor Hull As Best

By JIM CHERAS

Canadian Press Staff Writer

Bobby Hull, the golden boy of hockey, was named Canada's outstanding male athlete of 1965 after a torrid voting race with track star Bill Crothers.

The National Hockey League scoring star with Chicago Black Hawks polled 230 points among the 141 voters who took part in the 31st annual Canadian Press year-end poll, announced Thursday.

Crothers, Canada's crack middle distance runner from the Toronto suburb of Markham, Ont., who breezed to victory in the balloting in 1964, got more votes than Hull this time but finished with 221 points, nine fewer than the 26-year-old blond bombshell. Hull gained the edge by picking up 53 first-place votes compared with 37 firsts for Crothers.

The voters, sports editors and sportscasters a r o s a Canada, were asked to name the top three individual athletes in order of preference. Points were computed on a 3-2-1 basis.

Hull, a left winger who received hardly a mention in 1964, picked up 26 second-place votes and 18 thirds for a total of 98 votes. Crothers pulled in 41 seconds and 28 thirds for 106 votes.

RELIEVEAU THIRD

Hockey star Jean Beliveau of Montreal Canadiens was third with 110 points on 34 votes while hockey Ron Turcotte also polled 34 votes but had 87 points for fourth place.

Hull, a native of Pointe Anne, Ont., on Lake Ontario's Bay of Quinte, capped a brilliant season last spring by winning both the Hart Trophy as the most valuable player and the Lady Bing Trophy as the player best combining gentlemanly conduct with ability.

In 61 schedule games he had 39 goals and 32 assists for 71 points—with 32 minutes in penalties. He was the leading scorer in the playoffs with 10 goals and 17 points in 14 games, but Chicago lost the Stanley Cup final series to Montreal.

Hull, five-foot-10 and 183 pounds, picked up this season where he left off in the playoffs by counting a league-leading total of 23 goals and 38 points in his first 21 games.

He joined the Hawks in 1957, 38 and rocketed into the line, light almost from the outset. A mar with a wrist shot and slap shot quickly established him as one

Popular Opinion Forcing CAHA To Reconsider Italian Trip

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

hamment and Toronto civic lead-

A deluge of protests followed by support from three levels of government, including Prime Minister Pearson, has forced the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association to reconsider its decision to turn down a tour of Italy by a Canadian amateur hockey team.

Lionel Fleury, president of the CAHA, said in Montreal Wednesday night the organization will conduct a new poll of its executives today.

Tuesday the executives, in a telephone and telegram vote of 13 to 9, denied a request by an all-star team from Toronto's Italian-Canadian Hockey League for permission to make a five-game exhibition swing through Italy in January.

Toronto Alderman Joe Picerno immediately threatened court action if the CAHA upheld the decision. He appealed to the prime minister for support.

Mr. Pearson replied that he hoped the association and the Italian-Canadian League could work out a solution "that will permit this very interesting program to go forward."

Support for the proposed tour also came from Ontario Premier Roberts, members of Parliament and Toronto civic lead-

Fleury said he spoke by telephone Wednesday night to Gordon Jukes of Melville, Sask., secretary-manager of the CAHA, and "we'll do our best to straighten things out."

Jukes will conduct the new poll.

Fleury also said he had been getting many letters and telegrams of protest at his home in Quebec City.

The tour, arranged through Ontario's department of economic development, was to open in Milan Jan. 4. However, under CAHA rules, such tours must be sanctioned a year in advance.

Two months ago the way was cleared with the Ontario Hockey Association for the tour, but last week the tour arrangers learned that sanction was also needed from the CAHA.

The tour was also to be a goodwill tour with the Ontario government arranging to stage a "Buy Ontario Week" in Milan to coincide with the trip.

Meanwhile, Dr. Anthony Santamara, Ontario's trade commissioner in Italy, was advised to keep all reservations intact for the tour.

Baltimore Going To School After Vikings Successes

NEW YORK (AP) — Fran-

Tarleton's success in running against Green Bay Packers raises a faint hope for Tom Matte and the underdog Baltimore Colts in Sunday's National Football League playoff game.

If Matte could throw like Tarleton, their hopes for the Western Division title would be much brighter.

Tarleton dashes hither and yon, eluding linemen and linebackers, until he gets set to throw a pass for Minnesota Vikings. Sometimes he keeps the ball and runs.

Matte, the converted halfback whose father, Joe Matte of Rockland, Ont., made it to the National Hockey League with Detroit Red Wings, is a relict artist who runs according to plan and seldom throws the ball.

Although there is a vast difference between the two men, both run with the ball often. In the first Minnesota-Green Bay game Nov. 21, Tarleton was the leading rusher with 54 yards on eight carries although the Vikings lost 38-13.

GAINED MORE YARDS

Tarleton ran six times for 29 yards in their last meeting, won by the Packers 42-27, but the Vikings piled up 231 yards on the ground in fact, the Packers were away down the list for the season, 13th in defence against the run although they gave up only 11 touchdowns on the ground.

The Packers probably got a leg edge in the flip of a coin that made them the home team.

They are used to the ice and snow of Wisconsin at Christmas time. If the field is frozen, the receivers usually have an edge over the defenders.

In a game such as this between two tough defensive units, the first score will be most important.

If Green Bay gets out front by more than a touchdown, the Packers will close off the outside to Matte and force the Colts to try to move up the middle.

When figuring out the San Diego-Buffalo championship game in the American League Sunday, don't forget Lance Alworth didn't play last year when the Bills won 20-7.

Alworth will be in the lineup at San Diego Sunday although Keith Lincoln is doubtful. It was Lincoln who was knocked out of action last Dec. 26 in a memorable tackle by Mike Stratton in the first quarter.

The Chargers are 1-3 in title games, including 1960 when they represented Los Angeles. Buffalo is 1-0.

In their two regular season meetings, San Diego won the first 34-3 and tied the second 20-20.

Gilhooly Returns As President

Bob Gilhooly has been re-elected as president of the Kelowna Golf and Country Club.

Gilhooly was re-elected at the first meeting of the club directors since their annual meeting December 15. Re-elected as vice-president was Jake Peters.

Newcomers to the executive are Bob Leithwaite and Doug Taylor. Incumbents on the executive are Moe Young, George Barnes, Allan Anderson, Ray McFadden and club captain Stu Jamieson.

Club members are reminded that the clubhouse and the pro shop will be closed Christmas Day and Boxing Day.

The annual Boxing Day "At Home" will be held December 21 from 4-7 p.m.

Hawks Vault Into Tie Atop NHL; Hull Sinks New York

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Chicago's Bobby Hull had no trouble chewing out New York Rangers to the tune of two goals and an assist Wednesday—despite his missing teeth.

The Rangers proved indigestible in their previous National Hockey League contest against Chicago, fighting to a 2-2 draw, but Wednesday night, with Hull putting the bite to them, they went down 4-3.

Said Nick Garon, trainer of Chicago Black Hawks:

"Bobby Hull can score three goals, and what picture do the photographers want? Hull, smiling with his teeth out and holding a puck. It doesn't make sense."

Garon said the only Hawk who has not lost a tooth or more in action is goalie Glenn Hall. The Rangers declined to answer questions about their players' teeth.

Hull's two goals Wednesday strengthened his hold on the top spot in the NHL individual scoring race. He is five points ahead of teammate Stan Mikita, who scored the winning goal in the final period.

Mikita's goal at the 13:38 mark, his 11th of the season, moved Chicago into a first-place tie with Montreal Canadiens in team standings.

The first goal of the game came off Hull's stick during the first period, but New York topped that effort with goals by Rod Gilbert, who bulleted a slap-shot puck past the Chicago netminder, and Bob Nevin.

An early second-period goal by Vic Hadfield put Rangers in a healthy 3-1 position. But Hull and Ken Wharram each made it a 3-3 tie and set the stage for Mikita's winner.

New York had 22 shots on goal and Chicago 25.

The only game today pits New York against the Red Wings in Detroit.

Writer Takes Look At China And Sees Fear Of U.S. Attack

Felix Greene is a British who has made four trips to China, made films and written two books on the country. In the following story he presents the situation in China as he observed it on his latest trip.

By FELIX GREENE

LONDON (AP)—The government of Peking is convinced that a U.S. attack on China has a high probability. The Chinese people are prepared for a major war, the foreign minister said last September.

Greene, who has been in China for several years, says that the Chinese people are not in a state of panic, but they are in a state of readiness.

He says that the Chinese people are not in a state of panic, but they are in a state of readiness.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW

For tomorrow is a highly satisfactory day, even though not a particularly stimulating one. Your relations should be good, and you will find your greatest happiness in the company of family and friends. Also favored: community projects and musical entertainment.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If tomorrow is your birthday, the horoscope for the next year should prove exceptionally gratifying. You are exceptionally good and promising. In late April and early May, also last December and January, your financial outlook is also good, with signs of your career power being stepped up in March and during the first week of May; also the end of July, during the last half of September, mid-October, and the first three months of 1967. Just a few admonitions, however: Make no loans in late May; put out of all speculative ventures by the first week of June; guard against excessive partying in November and mid-December.

Domestic and social interests will be governed by fine influences for most of the 12 months ahead, but do be careful to avoid friction in close circles for the balance of this month. In late April, early June, late August, early September and early October, 1966 will be an excellent year for romance, with outstanding periods indicated in late June, all of July and late September. The stars will be especially propitious for marriage during the latter month. Travel doesn't seem to be much on your agenda this year, but if you do want to take a short trip, the first three weeks of July will be propitious. A child born on this day will be sensitive, intuitive and endowed with a fine intellect.

Christmas morning we open at 6 a.m. and the entire day will feature special programs for the great occasion. The Christmas Oratorio by Heinrich Schütz will be a special show at 7 p.m. until 8 p.m. on Dec. 25. This feature, the Windischbach Boys' Choir of Germany, together with three native soloists: Edith Mathis, soprano, is the Angel, George Jelden, tenor, sings the Evangelist, Claus Ocker, bass, sings Herod. The conductor is Hans Thamm. This presentation was recorded in the cathedral at Heilbronn near Nuremberg, Germany, and is the end result of a group that became famous in spite of their simple beginning in Windischbach.

CJOV-FM will remain on the air with separate programs Dec. 25 until the Christmas After-Glow, a program of change of pace, easy, modern music puts the cap on the candle at 11 p.m. at which time we rejoin CJOV for simulcast until 2 a.m. Meanwhile, may you all capture the miracle of the spirit of Christmas.

Other deliveries that will be made in the form of Christmas specials on CJOV-FM are as follows: at 8:30 to 9 p.m. on Christmas Eve, the Crested Heights High School Choir and band will present "From Youth To You. The Broken Royal Christmas Party will be a symphony hall's Yuletide program on the lighter side from 9 p.m. to 10 p.m. The Excelsior Men's Glee Club of Calgary and the 60 voice choir of Central United Church of that city combine for your enjoyment in a special entitled Carols in Concert. Following this the great Messiah that we have mentioned before.

Apartheid's Pros, Cons Not Really That Simple

Apartheid, the South African government policy of racial separation, is favored by a majority of the republic's 3,335,000 whites. But it is not a simple pro-and-con issue. A Canadian Press reporter discusses the mixture of feelings.

JOHANNESBURG (CP)—The white taxi driver, who that his fare was a foreign visitor, volunteered replies to questions before they were asked.

"That's the railway station on your right—this side for the blacks, the other side for the whites," he said.

"It works fine. No fights, no arguments. It costs me $10.10 worth of it for $10. A few bob (pennies), maybe."

"We see them as children. You're not too nice to them. They like it their way and we like it ours."

This man, like the majority of South Africa's white people, supports Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd's racial policy of apartheid.

An interesting item that to me fits into the age of wonders is the very fact of CJOV-FM's existence. Eve presentation of the "Messiah" at 9 p.m. until midnight. This "Messiah" performance was actually recorded on Sunday, Dec. 19 in Independence, Miss. by the 300 voice choir of the re-organized church of Jesus Christ. Later, Day Saints along with the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra through the "miracle" of electronic tapes, and the air-express shipping channels, we received the tapes for this as early as Tuesday afternoon. We had already publicized this program with some pride. We secretly were concerned as to the possible late arrival knowing the close proximity of the recording date to Dec. 24. But thanks to modern day miracles it would seem we'll be able to deliver on Christmas Eve.

It's remarkable too how the writers and producers of the many programs that have to be prepared ahead of Christmas for CJOV-FM as well as CJOV-AM, have managed to handle the load. As a result of everybody's efforts, a minimum of staff will be required to carry out the very full program assignment list. It certainly proves that "no man is an island" when it comes to getting the work out. Even now as I write this, I feel for the CJOV's continuing room staff and others there, who at this time are full of hope that it will all come out okay in the end. Their final hour of course is that deadlines will be met for copy.

PET Paddock

Your pet store, that reliable helper in so many pet matters, is able to supply you with a wide variety of food suitable for finches. Get the habit of patronizing a certain pet dealer and chatting with him about your pet from time to time. He will be able to give you many hints about the care and feeding of finches.

He will also be the source of such fatherly advice as telling you never to feed your bird with table scraps. Professional bird men are known to be quite adamant on this point!

Your finches are very inexpensive to feed. Their main diet is simply finch seed. Though it may look as though all finch seed mix is alike, such is not the case. Your dealer should be asked for a mixture of Indian millet, small canary seed and white millet. However, try feeding your birds with insect foods now and then. They will welcome the change of pace.

Green foods are good for your birds in moderation. Seeding grasses, picked yourself during the past five or six hours, form a pleasant dietary change. Others are uncooked lettuce, dandelions and watercress. However, all such greens must be fresh when fed, and any uneaten portions should be removed when they begin to go stale.

A morsel of apple or orange makes a nice treat, but again, in moderation. Too much of this type of food can cause loose droppings.

Millet sprays are always welcomed by finches as a natural food. You may find the birds are at first a little frightened by this strange addition to their cage. In that case, just break off a small sprig of millet and offer it.

However fresh your finch seed may be when you buy it, you should store it in a glass jar. This is advisable when the seed is going to be kept in your home for fairly long periods of time.

Every couple of weeks, add some vitamins to your finches' food. There are several of such supplements available and really help keep birds in good condition. Just add to the seed for the best economical results. And, finally, always see to it that your pet finches have an adequate supply of clean drinking water that is changed every day.

RUSSIAN VIEW OF JAMES BOND

007 Nyet, But Sean Ok

MOSCOW (Reuters)—James Bond may be "a cynical murderer and racist," but Sean Connery, the screen's 007, is an "anti-fascist" spy element, a Soviet film magazine says.

The weekly Soviet Screen (Sovetskii Ekran) says Connery's performance in the latest winning film The Hill shows he is a talented actor who could do much for the British cinema if he could escape from the image of author Ian Fleming's spy-hero.

But it says the Bond film series now plays an important role in bourgeois militarist propaganda and its creators have done everything to make 007 popular among a not very discerning public, "despite his anti-human essence."

Connery wanted to play some really artistic roles, the magazine says, but he admintered he stayed with a character he did not like because of the astronomical salary.

He got his salary, Soviet Screen indicated to its readers, to keep him in the series and maintain the high "propaganda value" of his films.

None of the Bond films ever have been shown in Soviet movie houses but both films and books have been under withering fire here in recent months as instruments of the cold war.

es appear on every other page. Although one is told about the early problems of the Lewis gun interrupter mechanism, and the handling characteristics of the S.E. 5, the book has remarkably little to say about the man Bishop.

When the author concerns himself with the Bishop he knows (they were "more like pals than father and son") the book is coming to a close.

What was Bishop like to live with as a husband, as a father? What kind of a man was this who would get railway porters lined up as a guard of honor for his wife when she departed by train? He cried frequently "because many things touched him deeply." What things?

It is unfortunate that this book tells so very little about such an unusual man: a man who knew courage because he knew fear. It leaves too many questions unanswered. It leaves too many unasked.

pacan of death to the Pfalz scout framed in the hairline cross-eyes of the bedroom mirror. Now read on . . .

He and his flight mates dove at full throttle into the formation. Bishop opened fire on the nearest machine from ten yards. Smoke spread from it instantly and a plummeted down in a crazy spin. Bishop turned on the plane of his right, closed to within five yards and pressed the button. Bullets splattered all about the pilot. His head fell forward and the plane turned on its side and dove out of control . . .

This letter is from The Courage of the Early Morning by W. A. Bishop (McClelland and Stewart).

This book is the story of Billy Bishop the Canadian aviator who accounted for 17 enemy planes during World War I. The story is another natural for Hollywood. Consider the boy who, at Royal Military College, is both liar and cheat ("the worst cadet RMC ever had") joins the cavalry but sees aircraft as an escape from mud and dust.

He joins the RFC and although a mediocre pilot becomes a top "ace" by virtue of his marksmanship and incredible courage.

At the end of the war Bishop has an impressive collection of medals including the Victoria Cross and is an international hero. He goes on a lecture tour and attracts audiences in thousands. One night he collapses on stage. Returning one month later he draws an audience of exactly ten persons . . . As the film will no doubt say at this point: "Ah well, that's showbiz."

This book concentrates on a few hectic months in Bishop's life, and descriptions of aerial combat between those magnificent men in their flying machines.

At The Library

By BRYAN BACON

The problem of security in an open society is the subject of a new book "Not in the Public Interest" by David Williams (Macmillan). The growth of modern society has in turn brought about expansion of the civil service. There has been a parallel increase in secrecy surrounding the executive which is in direct contradiction to the main tenets of democratic government.

Although dealing in the main with examples drawn from British sources this book underlines a situation common to all democratic countries. "The ultimate danger of executive secrecy is that it denies the knowledge essential for an informed public opinion and that it inhibits effective scrutiny and criticism of the government and the administration."

Twenty-five years ago I received from an elder cousin a discarded Chums Annual which he had outgrown. Dedicated to the boys of the Empire on which the sun has long since set this book had a traumatic effect on my childhood. Full of stories which today no self-respecting children's librarian would even consider for stock, it was a triumph of blood, thunder and national violence.

My bed became the open cockpit of a Sopwith Camel and each night the blood red flames from the muzzles of my Lewis guns would lick hungrily back in the slipstream as a hammering hail of lead sang out a

Ex-Member Of BBG Tells In Word How To Protect Viewing Public

MONTREAL (CP) — Dr. Eugene Forsey, once a member of the Board of Broadcast Governors, looked back Friday on his BBG experience and came up with a one-word version of how to protect the public interest in television—toughness.

Dr. Forsey, research director for the Canadian Labor Congress, said Canada's television policy should be "flexible," but that an authority guarding the public interest must "prevent the hucksters or demagogues from imposing their views on this medium."

He made the remarks during a one-day conference sponsored by the Canadian Broadcasting League, an association of 20 groups that say they want better broadcasting.

The groups include the CLC, the Canadian Federation of Agriculture and the Co-operative Union of Canada.

Dr. Forsey was among the first group of members appointed to the BBG, after its establishment in 1958. He resigned in 1962 on a policy matter.

The BBG would not authorize a CBC-TV outlet in Quebec City, and Dr. Forsey had supported such authorization. The outlet was approved in 1963.

The BBG, he told the Friday conference, has been "insufficiently tough with private stations."

"On the whole, the people who run the private stations are a very tough crew and they are interested in making money. There's got to be real control and we (of the BBG) were really too easy. We didn't swat flies hard enough and often enough."

Any organ overseeing broadcasting in the public interest must teach broadcasters "that they do not bargain with the regulatory authority," said Dr. Forsey.

"BACKBONE IS NEEDED"
The regulatory function is a "stiff and difficult job" that requires "people with backbone."

In the interests of flexibility, said Dr. Forsey, some doors should be left open but "some should be banged and locked."

The league opposes the current system which gives Parliament power over CBC finances. Dave Kirk, a member of the league executive, said such parliamentary control "is in principle wrong and dangerous."

Footless Pilot, 32, Still Flies Plane

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP)—A navy pilot, Lt. Cmdr. Frank K. Ellis, despite the loss of the lower part of his legs, wants to become an astronaut. The navy approves of his ambition and is backing his candidacy. Ellis, 32, lost his ankles and feet in 1962 when he bailed out of a jet nine months before it crashed. He has continued as a pilot with artificial limbs.

Happy Story For A Genie

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The problem of the pregnant genie has been solved to the satisfaction of NBC Screen Gems and executive Barbara Eden.

Last winter the blonde star, wife of actor Michael Ansara, made a pilot film for a new television series, I Dream of Jeannie. The setup seemed sure-fire: Barbara played a genie returned to the wishes of Larry Hagman. After all, witches and magicians had fostered hit television series, why not a genie?

"I Dream of Jeannie" was snapped up for the 1965-66 season. On the day it was purchased, Barbara made another discovery: She was expecting her first child.

"I called Sidney Sheldon, who had created the series for Screen Gems," said Barbara, "and I thought surely he would then want to cast another girl for the lead. But he said they would try to work it out."

The series couldn't begin production because scripts weren't prepared. After a couple of months, Barbara assumed her role as the genie, wardrobe magic concealing her condition. "I made 11 films, riding a camel, flying through the air and everything," she said. "I worked until I was seven months along and even came back for some closeups at eight months."

HOLLYWOOD STYLE SWIM SUIT

The name of shapely Anne Margaret's new movie is "The Swinger," and evidently she plays the title role wearing swim suits like these. Her studio hired designer Edith Head, a seven-time Oscar winner for fashions, to create the star's 24 "swim" outfits which include a chain-link and key thing skirts and one called "Bottomless" (bright), which isn't quite "A.P. Wares" either.

It's Just An Idea But She Won Job

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Who wouldn't want to join a club that had Suzanne Pleshette as social director?

A couple hundred Hollywood types are plunking down $150 to become charter members of The Other Place, the latest mark on the film colony's shifting social scene. It is a private discotheque in Beverly Hills, where the younger crowd can Frug and Water among friends.

Miss Pleshette, a vivacious brunette, was among the first enrollees in The Other Place. She told one of the proprietors, Chuck Livingston:

"You know, as soon as you get The Other Place organized, you ought to appoint a committee to sound out the members' wishes and plan special events. For instance, they might want to hire a bus to go to the football game, or have a costume party at Halloween or dress up in oriental costumes for Chinese new year's."

The owner replied: "That's a splendid idea; you're elected!"

TAKE Five

By BETTY TOOLE

By the time this goes to press the number of shopping days to Christmas will be but just a saying, and if you haven't completed your shopping you are pressing your luck.

We have also reached the halfway mark in the bowling season, with the majority of the leagues taking a holiday between Christmas and New Years. The first half started slow, however, it picked up momentum as the weeks rolled by.

High single game, which was rolled midway through the half, was by Doris Whittle, with a 386 score. Doris has really come into her own and is having a great year. She is one of the top lady bowlers on our district.

The high triple score thus far was rolled by a young, up-and-coming bowler, Bruce Bennett, with 907.

The big game, not only for this year but, for the past few years was rolled by another young lady, Alma Gruber, on Dec. 17 at the Valley Lanes in Rutland. Her score was 448. Yes, two points (1 pin) away from a perfect game.

How disappointing. But for the little dynamo from Rutland it will create a challenge to roll that perfect game; and for my money she will accomplish this. Alma proved her ability by placing on last year's Western Canada Team, where she gave a good account of herself in the ladies singles along with some fine bowling in the team events.

By the way, Alma is not only a fine bowler but proved to be an expert also by picking the Western Canada Team as she was the winner of the "Dream Team" contest.

Don't forget to enter the three players mixed team tournament—Dec. 26 and 27 at the Bowladrome. Drop in, before the rush, and pick up an entry form so you may choose the time you wish to bowl.

Merry Christmas to all.

Hate Literature
Target Of Motion

TORONTO (CP) — Legislation to curb the spread of hate literature was sought Tuesday by Vernon Singer, Liberal member of the Ontario legislature for Downview. In a resolution filed for debate in the forthcoming session of the legislature, Mr. Singer seeks amendments to the Criminal Code making it an offence for anyone to advocate or promote genocide.

PROTEST NUCLEAR TESTS

WELLINGTON (Reuters) — New Zealand will seek support from other Pacific countries in a protest move against French nuclear testing in the Pacific, Prime Minister Keith Holyoake announced yesterday. He made his statement after meeting a delegation from the New Zealand Federation of Labor which has called for the tests to be stopped.

Ditch-Digger
Star, Deckhand
-A Varied Life

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — From movie star to ditch digger and deckhand — that's the curious saga of Jeff Richards.

At 41, his black hair is flecked with grey, and his frame is no longer lean and athletic. But he remains a startlingly handsome figure of a man as he stalks hero Howard Keel down Paramount's western street in Waco.

A decade ago, Richards was playing Keel's brother in the musical hit Seven Brides for Seven Brothers, and he was one of MGM's brightest young players.

More recently, he has been digging storm drains for a construction firm, working as security guard for a Miami Beach hotel and as a seaman on a charter yacht.

DRANK HEAVILY

Whatever happened to Jeff Richards?

A lot of things, he admits, including a career slump, an embarrassing divorce and a bout with the bottle.

Richards discussed his recent history during a break in Waco, his first acting in five years. Things started turning sour after he had filmed the pilot for a television series, The Last Frontier. It didn't sell.

Acting jobs grew scarce and loneliness set in. He tried to assuage it by making the party rounds. "I drank like an SOB," he admitted.

Jeff ballooned to 250 pounds. Feeling the need to get back into some kind of shape, he took a job with a construction gang. One day he was trying to pull a water pump out of a soggy ditch. His foot slid and he tumbled, slipping a disc.

RECOVERY TOOK YEAR

He accompanied a friend to Houston, where he lived on pain because of the pain. The disc was removed and Jeff spent a year recovering.

He returned to Hollywood and worked as a laborer again until he injured his Achilles tendon. Still no acting jobs came, and he didn't care.

A year ago, Jeff felt he had to escape the atmosphere of Hollywood. He went to Florida and was working as security guard at the Americana Hotel when he met an old Hollywood friend, Marilyn Hinton. She referred him for a job as a crew member on the yacht Edgewood, which chartered out of Fort Lauderdale. She also got him the Waco job.

"My whole attitude is different after a year away," he said. "I've dropped 35 pounds and I can drink sensibly now. I may stay here for a television series, or I may go back to the boat. At least I know how to live with myself now."

FASTING THE ANSWER?

NEW DELHI (AP) — The newspaper The Statesman has a word of consolation for sufferers in India's food crisis: "Some experts are now working on the theory that man can live on light, air and water." It reported doctors were investigating a Lucknow man who lived 22 days without eating by yoga, the Indian art of muscle and breath control.

SACRIFICE FOR PEACE

HARADII, Yemen (AP) — Tribesmen led by Sheikh Aly Ibn Najl al Kawayi beheaded two oxen in a ritual sacrifice to pray for success in peace talks between the republican rebel government and royalist Yemenis in the hills. The conferees had not yet agreed to rules for discussion.

-MOVIE-
highlights

Movies lined up for the holidays provide a wide selection with something for every taste.

There is a comedy, an Elvis Presley, a fairy tale and a spy drama.

Sunday, Dec. 26 at midnight "Marriage On the Rocks" will be seen starring Frank Sinatra, Debora Kerr and Dean Martin. It is an adult entertainment only and will return Jan. 5 for a three-day regular run.

Monday to Thursday inclusive, Dec. 27-30, "Tickle Me" will run at 7 and 9:10 p.m. and at the 2 p.m. matinee Monday, Dec. 27. It's an Elvis Presley romantic comedy.

Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 29-30 at matinees only "Snow White" will be shown at 1 and 3 p.m.

Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 31-Jan. 4 "The Great Spy Mission" will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. and at the Saturday, Jan. 1 matinee at 2 p.m.

"Marriage On the Rocks"

Debora Kerr rebels against the monotony of marriage, children and her husband, Frank Sinatra, who wants his family

Brooding Look
Proves Winner

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—He's 24, looks like a blonde Elvis Presley and has the build of a football halfback, which he once was.

His fans see a brooding quality of a James Dean, which is quite natural. Dean was a boyhood kid of Lee Majors, one of the stars of The Big Valley TV series.

The show's producers, knowing a good thing when they see one, threw the focus on Majors in six of the first 10 segments—not bad considering he's an untested, formidable costar in Barbara Stanwyck, Richard Long and Peter Breck.

It is even more remarkable when you consider that Majors never earned a dollar from acting before he was cast in The Big Valley.

"When I was younger, I read everything I could find out about James Dean," says Majors. "A name that stuck in my mind was Dick Clayton, who had been Dean's agent and friend. I went to see him and asked if he had any ideas of how I could become an actor. He wasn't interested in me as a client, but he suggested I take some acting lessons."

Majors did so, studying with a coach at MGM. Clayton kept track of his progress, refusing to settle him for minor roles. Majors had never acted outside a drama class when he won the role over 500 others in The Big Valley.

His future: unlimited.

as happy as he is—and can't understand why they aren't. Business partner and best friend, Dean Martin, gayest of bachelors, has assured Deborah for years that she is the only woman he would marry. In a last attempt to mend their marital trials the couple go to Mexico, quarrel, divorce, make up, regret the divorce and plan to remarry. Tied up in business, Sinatra is forced to send Martin to postpone the wedding bot, ignorant of Spanish, he finds himself married to Deborah.

"Tickle Me" Elvis plays a brone-busting rodeo rider roped by Eastern sophisticated Jube Adams for the job of singing wrangler on her beauty-spade ranch, patronized by wealthy glamour girls, with Jocelyn Lane cast opposite him romantically as physical director on the spread.

Elvis sings nine songs and reprises, two of them in "Tickle Me."

The fast moving plot revolves around a treasure hidden in the Arizona ghost town of Jocelyn's late grandfather, and Elvis' efforts to help her find it while beating off a gang of badmen. Jack Mulaney, as his two-footed sidekick, Merry Anders, as a ranch patron trying to beat the starvation diet by hook or by crook, and Bill Williams, as the crooked sheriff, co-star.

"Snow White" has enchanted children since its creation 150 years ago. It has been called the greatest fairy tale ever told.

With five actors playing all the roles in beautiful, real settings, "Snow White" tells the story of how the evil Queen sends the Princess into the forest because she is envious of her young beauty. There she meets the Seven Dwarfs who save her twice before she is finally rescued by Prince Charming. Faithful to the original fairy tale, but enhanced by a luring and fanciful score, this film will be enjoyed by children young and old as they remember the familiar and ever-absorbing story.

ber the familiar and ever-absorbing story.

"The Great Spy Mission" is a drama starring Sophia Loren, George Peppard, Trevor Howard and John Milled in a true-life story of World War II.

It is the story of "Operation Crossbow," the code name given to the search, through land agents and photographic intelligence, for Hitler's secret V-2 rockets.

From the first moment in which George Peppard, as Curtis, an American espionage agent, together with two fellow agents, is parachuted into Nazi-occupied Holland on the audacious, danger-filled assignment of locating the secret underground base and destroying it, "Operation Crossbow" is filled with unrelenting adventure and excitement.

The episodes in which he dupes the Nazis into believing him to be a collaborator, his meeting with the Dutch underground contact Frieda (Lilli Palmer) and the arrangements by which he is able to become a member of the working party in the rocket factory and transmit vital data back to allied headquarters lead up to Curtis' meeting with the beautiful Nora (Sophia Loren), a Dutch woman who seeks her husband, a specialist on the Nazi rocket project, not knowing he has been killed.

Montreal Cancels Plan For Tower

MONTREAL (CP) — Lucien Saulnier, chairman of the Montreal executive committee, said Tuesday the city has decided to cancel plans for a 1,000-foot tower on St. Helen's Island, site of Expo 67. He said it has become necessary for the committee to "appraise objectively the needs for capital expenditures of the city." Saulnier announced plans for the tower Nov. 18 and gave its estimated cost as $11,070,000.

Champagne, Celebrities Merge In Canadian Artist's U.K. Show

LONDON (CP)—Champagne and celebrities from stage, screen and British society at the opening of Roloff Beny's first London exhibition last night appropriate jet-set atmosphere to the work of the distinguished Canadian artist-photographer, admired by connoisseurs on both sides of the Atlantic.

Author-politician Sir Fitzroy Maclean, host at the gala reception, said of the 41-year-old native of Medicine Hat, Alta., "I honestly believe there is no greater exponent of photographic art living today."

The exhibition of 14 photographs of the world's architectural treasures, titled The World of Roloff Beny, is a selection from Beny's three published books—richly produced evocations of Greece, the Mediterranean civilization and the East which now are in translation in 11 languages.

Sponsored by the National Gallery of Canada, the exhibition goes to Toronto early in 1966 and then will visit Vancouver, Charlottetown and Ottawa before the end of the year. Later it goes to New York and Australia.

The splashy opening party in fashionable Knightsbridge was attended by some 250 society-page names, many of whom have been photographed by Beny. Sarah Churchill, actress daughter of the late Sir Winston, was among the guests to launch the exhibition, which raised money for the Churchill Memorial Fund.

MISSUS OPENING

Lord Snowdon, photographer husband of Princess Margaret, was unable to attend the opening because it clashed with the royal couple's visit to the United States. He sent a congratulatory note to Beny.

During its first week the show proved successful enough to have its run extended to five weeks from the scheduled three. The closing date now is Dec. 11.

It also proved immediately productive for Beny, who now moves among the world's leading art figures and operates from a 12-roomed penthouse studio overlooking the River Tower in Rome's picturesque Trastevere quarter. Three British publishers have asked him to contribute to new photographic books.

Sunday Times art critic John Russell praised the exhibition, first of a series of such artistic ventures to be mounted by factories tycoon Sir Nicholas Sekers in his newly-designed London showroom. Sir Nicholas was lauded this year for his active patronage of the arts.

The pictures all display the impressionistic figures and forms that Beny brought to photography from his earlier career as a painter. Critic Raymond Mortimer says he can be said to "sketch with his lens."

In London the display was strikingly mounted against a blaze of brilliant silk fabrics in peacock colors. Several of the patterns were inspired by textures in the photographs.

TO COMPILE BOOK

These special fabrics are to be promoted in Canada next year by Eaton's department store, and the Eaton family has also commissioned the book of Canadian photographs Beny is assembling for centennial year in 1967, to be titled There is a Season — A Photographer in Search of Canada.

Beny, who has already covered 50,000 miles of his homeland in periodic work on the book during the last three years, flies to Canada in mid-December to finish the project.

He will be spending most of his time in the eastern cities, seeking to convey through the camera "what Canada means in the future" and the country's role in world affairs. He describes the Canadian assignment as "the most difficult thing I have ever done."

"Canada is so elusive, so empty, so beautiful. Japan, now, has 2,000 years of history to record."

Along with his Canadian project, Beny has been working on a similar book about Japan, commuting three ways to and from Rome, Tokyo and Toronto.

He is one of some 30 top international photographers, including Britain's Lord Snowdon and France's Cartier-Bresson, who have been asked to contribute to the Montreal world exhibition in 1967. He has submitted 113 photographs from his work in 38 countries for consideration by the selection committee.

Whether She Jumped Or Was Pushed Julie Harris Having Wonderful Time

NEW YORK (AP)—Whether she jumped or was pushed isn't quite clear, but Julie Harris is having a fine time in her first musical comedy role.

"It's a joy to be doing," she said while trying to be exact about how the latest switch in her career came about.

For quite a while the slim star has been looking toward the song-and-dance stage.

When Julie Andrews left My Fair Lady, Miss Harris asked for an audition. There also was a test for Richard Rodgers, "even though I didn't think I was good enough, and of course, I didn't get either job."

She didn't stop looking or dreaming, however, and started taking voice lessons.

BECAME FRIGHTENED

But when Cy Feuer came to her about a production he and Ernie Martin were planning called Skyscraper, the ex-captain of the girls' field hockey team at Grosse Pointe, Mich., got frightened.

"It took a lot of pushing to get me into this," she confesses. "My husband was very encouraging, and Feuer was absolutely and overwhelmingly confident."

Their expectations proved well founded. Favorable reviews greeted the musical at the Lunt-Fontanne Theatre. Even warmer praise was sounded for Miss Harris, although her singing voice may never give Miss Andrews or Mary Martin keen competition.

In Skyscraper, she plays a girl addicted to daydreams who tries to stymie a mammoth building project.

In it, as she did in past roles as a party girl, a marathon dancer or as Joan of Arc, Miss Harris demonstrates amazing ability to become somebody else.

DOESN'T HIDE

"I don't try to hide myself, but the theatre began for me as wonderful make-believe, and I've never lost that feeling."

"When I step out of the wings, there is the excitement of being someone other than me. But there is more than just excitement. The fulfillment you get in acting comes from doing something you believe in, even if it is strange and difficult."

"My first impression of a part is sometimes overwhelming—I see it in an exaggerated perspective that perhaps I never get back to again. It's the desire to recapture that feeling which is the difficult part."

Twenty years on Broadway and 40 years old this month, the star's long-range dream is to go touring with a repertory company of her own.

All About ART

A merry Christmas to all, and in particular to:

Campbell, Tinning who enjoyed the distinction of having the first one-man show in our gallery; To Spenser Fable Piranesi and Canadian A. V. ## Around- The Rocks

Well here we are with Christmas just about upon us, when I suddenly realized that this column needed some attention, as here we are, and my first thought must be to wish all our curlers, young and old, male and female, ice-maker and manager, president and his executive, all the best for the coming holiday season, with good luck and good curling to all the budding champions, whether it be School, Ladies Diamond D, Mixed, Seniors, or the big prize of all, the Consols.

I know just what you all may be thinking, just how much your heart may be set on the winning of your particular competition, but I also want you to remember that only one risk can win any event, somebody must lose, somebody will win, let us hope that whichever way the chips may fall, you can come off the ice, happy if you win, and a good sport if the little Greenhorns just happen to be against you on this day's play.

During the past week it seems that the ladies curling club wound up their first season draw with an open Kelowna ladies club bonspiel of two events. Playing in the finals of the A event were the rinks of Bertie McCaugherty with Nancy McKenzie third, Rae Roud second, with Elsie Ost lead... against Joyce Underhill skip, Angie Turnbull third, Doris McCormack second, with Marjorie Hagun lead. Unfortunately early in this the final game, Bertie sustained a very painful wrench back, which necessitated her leaving the ice for the balance of the game.

The handicap of losing a skip of Bertie's calibre was just too much for the balance of the rink and although they put up a good scrap, under skiping of Nancy, they just could not overcome the more experienced skiping and playing of Joyce Underhill, who to my knowledge has been skiping ladies' rinks in Kelowna since 1951. I thought that throughout the whole play-down, Joyce has been curling in the best of form, and certainly deserved winning the A Event.

GOOD CURLING

The B Event finalists were as follows, Gertie Johnson skip, Lil Holland, third, Norma Bradley second, Olga Krempin lead. Here again there was a lot of good curling, despite the fact that the rinks participating were not what you could call championship rinks, we must remember that all of the rinks involved were just the regular club rinks, and if at times you tend to be critical, you should jog your memory to the fact that many of the curlers are just beginners, some with only a few months under their belts.

On the whole I would say that the lady curlers in Kelowna show a great deal of promise. In fact let's face it, all curling in Kelowna is at least 50 per cent better than it was 10 years ago.

However, I also noticed during some of the games in this playdown that a new touch has been given to become and stane, Mary Sutherland once again has brought in the ladies touch; The seniors I know among the men, envy her the courage it must have taken, for they too would like to copy her example, but just whoever heard of any he-man curler admitting that he required a chair to sit on in-between throwing rocks, but OK Mary your not alone, for back in 1958 at the Victoria Brier Playdowns, Bill Baldwin the eventual winner requested and received the same privilege, however, the did have the fun!

Senior curlers 55 years and over.

For the Seagram Stone, it has now been firmly established that the BCCA zones 1 and 2, 3 and 4, 5 and 6 will form into Regions and that the winners of these three regions along with the Yukon region, will travel to Nanaimo for the BCCA Playdown on February 20 and 21. The winner of this playdown will then meet the PCCA winner also at Nanaimo on February 22 in a best two-out-of-three for the Provincial Senior Championship. The Dominion Senior Championship for the Seagram Stone will take place at Winnipeg March 28 to April 1, 1968.

The BCCA and the Provincial O'Keefe Mixed Championship will be played at Smithers B.C. on Feb. 26-28, with the Dominion Championships at Fort William, March 21-25. But don't forget the Zone Consol Playdowns at Kelowna, Jan. 14-16, get your entry in. The schools zone playdown is at Osoyoos, Jan. 8 and 9, six schools are entered, Kelowna, Summerland, Penticton, Princeton, South Okanagan, Greenwood, Happy hunting boys.

CBC Starlet Finds Her Work Load Doubled Up In Her TV Program

TORONTO (CP)—The 15-year-old co-star of a network television show for children has found the job doubles her homework and cuts the time she has to do it in.

Trudy Young, the attractive fair-haired co-host of CBC-TV's Razzle Dazzle, attends Grade 10 classes at Alderwood Collegiate in the morning, goes to the studio about noon to rehearse for the 4:30 show, then goes home to do her school work and learn the day's script.

Trudy admits her marks have dropped a bit since she became a regular in October, and that she sometimes winds up learning her lines on the streetcar on the way to the studio, but generally she says the schedule isn't too tough and she wants to continue.

"I want to go to Grade 12 at least. I don't know about college. I think I'd like to go to drama school. I'd like to try stage work."

Trudy says her family is all in favor of her show business ambitions. She has a brother three years older and a sister three years younger who are interested in her budding career but show no signs of wanting to try it themselves.

Being on the show hasn't changed her social life much, she says, although some of her friends watch it and tease her about host Ray Bellevue and about her conversations with the turtle who is a featured character on the program.

HEARTY DANCING

Trudy's schedule also includes some modelling work and dancing lessons. It was through her dancing teacher that she got the chance to make her first TV appearance in 1963 on Time of Your Life. She was a regular on that show for a season and began appearing occasionally on Razzle Dazzle in 1964.

She says she is recognized sometimes now on the street, which pleases her. Recently a small boy spotted her and called up a bunch of other small children who followed her until she signed autographs for them.

Ray Bellevue, whose own career began when he was 16, says he believes someone who performs for children must remain natural and unaffected, which is not always easy for a young person suddenly in the limelight.

Shuttle talk

By MARI McLEOD

Today, as I attacked the empty piece of paper which I hoped would evolve into a column, my mind went blank — or should I say "blacker"? "Aha!" said I, always quick in self-defense. "An obvious case of over-exposure to letter writing!" That was hitting the pen on its replaceable ink cartridge. Mine is a sad case of conditioned response begun way back in that dim past — over three years ago — when I faced another blank page, that time of writing paper.

The aforementioned mind recoiled what a beautiful white expanse and what a shame to sully it with endurable ink. Frightening word — indelible. Next try pressing the button, unsheathing the nib — maybe that will trigger a similar button in the afore, mind, loosing a flow of stored chatter. Surely something is stored in the afore, mind. Well, here's for it — "Dear Friend," — that's better. Before doing anything reckless, off to get a cup of coffee — that should lubricate the gears in the afore, mind. As water boils, hear Friendly Giant reading "Little old mouse, why run down the clock?"

To see of the tie comes out of the tie.

Consider putting that in letter but decide that friend would feel that I had suffered overdose of Okanagan sun. Slip coffee, staring at salutation, "Dear Friend" which only makes the page look bigger and blacker — same sensation in a mind.

PAGES SULLIED

Well, you get the picture. Fortunately, many pages were sullied in the next few weeks in my annual effort of communication. The strongest motivation arose from the thought of all the lovely letters I would receive in return. It is true in letter writing as in all else that one must give in order to receive.

There is very little to report in the racquet world. Possibly this week I should have omitted "Shuttle" from the title.

The land of the big white boomers is busy preparing for Davis Cup matches which will be played Dec. 27-29 at the White City courts in Sydney. Australian stars Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle seem to be back in form after rather spotty performances in various tournaments in the past few weeks. Big guns for the Spaniards are Manuel Santana and Luis Arilla who hope to carry the Davis Cup back to Spain. The Aussies have won the cup 12 of the last 15 times.

Badminton tournaments and matches are completed for this year but several major ones are slated for the beginning of the 1966 season. Members at the club are participating now in the play-away plan. You simply play away the pounds so that with good conscience you can "lay into" the gustatory delights of the coming season. Throughout the next few weeks our theme song will be (with apologies to Mary Poppins), "Just a brisk game of badminton makes the avoirdupois go down, in a most delightful way." Care to join in a chorus?

Speaking of the chorus reminds me of Ouija boards — you can the way my mind is operating these days. Do you remember the Ouija boards that were so popular 20 years ago? They seem to be making a comeback. I suppose you can't keep a good spirit down. A friend introduced me to her Ouija board the other day. It was a shattering experience. I approached it cloaked in the mantle of a skeptic and my friend felt that the spirits of the board would be loathe to divulge their secrets to a non-believer. The Ouija board knew better. It could tell when I gingerly touched the counter that here was a skin deep skeptic and that underneath lurked a superstitious primitive anxious not to offend the forces of Ouija.

SCOFFERS AT BAT

With the scoffers at bay, the counter fairly flew over the board answering questions. It was even possessed of a sense of humor. When my companion asked if she would be surprised by a certain gift at Christmas, the board answered, "Yes", then spelled out "Some surprises." With one last kick of skepticism, I accused my friend of pushing the counter but by her expression of outraged innocence made me apologize profusely both to her and to Ouija. I certainly hope I propitiated those spirits.

Another spirit, "a right jolly old elf," should be starting on his rounds soon. He won't need to leave anything for the Canadian Hockey Team. They received their Christmas gift early in their 6-1 win over the Russian team. I admired Ted Reynolds and the facility with which he rolled off the Russian names. After a run of Davidoff's, Almatoff's and Sergikoff's I waited for him to call side-offs but was disappointed.

Now it is the night before Christmas. All through your house may Christmas be a happy one and may the New Year "go out with joy and be led forth with peace."

Bardot Brightens Hollywood Scene

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Brigitte Bardot restored some of Hollywood's old-time glamour Tuesday night when the famed French sex symbol attended her first Hollywood premiere.

The movie was Viva Maria, in which Brigitte co-starred with Jean Moreau.

It was a rollicking comedy bit and one of the biggest name turnouts in recent years applauded Miss Bardot lustily after the showing.

The 31-year-old actress was a knockout in a double pencil chiffon form-fitting gown that clung to her famous figure as if it were sprayed on.

She couldn't have caused more sensation among the 500 or more fans outside the theatre had she shown up in a towel.

She was accompanied by Bob Zaguri, her wealthy Turkish boyfriend.

Art Thieves Grab Antique Paintings

TURIN (AP) — Art thieves spent about five hours Monday night removing four small paintings on wood cemented to the cathedral wall in this north Italian city, police said Tuesday. The paintings, by unknown artists of the early 16th century, were said to be worth about $3,200 each. Each was secured to the wall by a casing of cement that served as a frame.

MOTHER BARES EYE

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — The best way to keep father from drinking too much at the office Christmas party is to invite the wife and kids too, says the South African Road Safety Council. The presence of the family prevents parties from getting out of hand, says general manager Matt Mare.

NEILBOARD

Christmas is almost here, and events in the city have slowed considerably as people prepare to spend more time at home.

The Kelowna Jaycees have decided to help celebrate New Year's Eve with a dance in the Aquatic. The dance will start at 9 p.m. and will carry through until the end of the first hour of the New Year.

The music will be supplied by the Enderados.

The Cardeans Car Club will supply the entertainment between Christmas and New Year's with a dance in the Aquatic on Monday.

Dance time will be 9 a.m. - 1 a.m. but it is not yet known who will be playing the music.

YOUNGEST WENT FAR

A show business child, Joan Blundell celebrated her first 22 birthdays in different cities in seven different countries.
